GENERAL INFORMATION

All youth experience positive personal growth and increased self-reliance through encouragement and support of a wide variety of learning experiences. 4-H prepares young people to make a positive impact on their communities and the world. The junior youth show at The Western Idaho Fair is the culmination of their learning experiences for the past year as a result of their activities in 4-H and FFA. This handbook has guidelines for 4-H and FFA youth to participate at the county, district and state levels.

Idaho 4-H Program: University of Idaho U.S. Department of Agriculture and Idaho counties cooperating. The University of Idaho is an equal opportunity employer. Persons with disabilities have the right to request and receive reasonable accommodations. Each participant must be evaluated individually, assessing whether they are qualified for the event and whether they would be able to participate in the event with or without accommodation. So long as the participant meets essential requirements of the activity, participation should be welcomed. Please complete this form to assist in evaluating the reasonable accommodation request at least two weeks prior to the event. Accommodation applications cannot be approved without supporting documentation. Submit this electronic request form by sending the application and documentation to Center for Disability Access and Resources 875 Perimeter Drive Moscow, IS 83844-4257 cdar@uidaho.edu Phone 208-885-6307, Fax 208-885-9404.

Statewide activities are those events open to youth living in Idaho and Eastern Oregon and enrolled in Idaho 4-H or FFA. (Livestock Judging Contest, Small Animal Judging Contest).

4-H Southern District activities are events open to Idaho 4-H youth enrolled in the nine (9) contiguous counties (Adams, Valley, Payette, Washington, Gem/Boise, Canyon, Owyhee, Ada and Elmore). District Oral Presentations, District Style Revue, Amalgamated Cookie Contest, The Western Idaho Fair Invitational Small Animal Super Round Robin, The Western Idaho Fair Invitational Large Animal Super Round Robin.

Ada/Canyon 4-H and FFA events are open to 4-H and FFA youth enrolled in Ada and Canyon County programs.

Ada 4-H/FFA events are open only to 4-H/FFA youth enrolled in Ada County programs.

2025 Fair Theme
"Cake, Cattle & Roll"

Grievance policy for 4-H / FFA Exhibitors

All grievances must be submitted in writing, clearly stating the grounds for the complaint. Any protest regarding the exhibition of an animal or project must be filed with the department supervisor or Premium Office at least 24 hours after the incident.

A $50.00 deposit is required when submitting a grievance. If the protest is upheld, the deposit will be refunded. If the protest is not upheld, the deposit will be forfeited to the Western Idaho Fair. The Grievance Committee will review all submitted concerns at its earliest convenience.

The Western Idaho Fair 4-H/FFA Agriculture Scholarship

The Western Idaho Fair will provide at least two $2000.00 scholarships for 4-H and FFA members who are outstanding students, who have a history of participation in The Western Idaho Fair youth agriculture programs and who participate in The 2025 Western Idaho Fair.

The Western Idaho Fair furnishes applications directly to County Extension Offices, FFA Chapters and local high school counseling departments, or they may be obtained at The Western Idaho Fair Office. All applications must be returned or mailed directly to The Western Idaho Fair Office at the following address:

4-H/FFA Agriculture Scholarship, The Western Idaho Fair, 5610 Glenwood, Boise, ID 83714. Check with the Expo Idaho Administrative Office for deadlines at (208)287-5650.

The Western Idaho Fair will make final approval and notify each scholarship recipient.

Danish System of Judging

The 4-H Program at The Western Idaho Fair uses a modified Danish System of awards. The process used is interview judging.

1. Cloverbuds receive participation stickers or ribbons. They are only interviewed to help them grow and develop. Cloverbud participation is optional.
2. 4-H youth will be interviewed to evaluate accomplishment of self-set goals and skills learned.
3. 4-H/FFA youth will be evaluated on their exhibited item against a standard of excellence and completion requirements.

The Modified Danish System allows all exhibits to receive a blue, red, or white ribbon placing.

Senior (4-H/FFA)	Age 14 to 18 years old as of January 1

4-H/FFA CODE OF CONDUCT

All 4-H and FFA activities and events will adhere to the appropriate Code of Conduct and the Idaho 4-H Program Policies and Procedures. Idaho families and youth trust the University of Idaho Extension system to provide educational programs in a safe environment for all participants. The opportunity to participate in and/or work with the University of Idaho 4-H Youth Development program is a privilege and honor, not a right. Volunteers are to be positive role models. Youth and parents/guardians are expected to demonstrate appropriate behavior at all times. The following Code of Conduct has been established as the foundation for all individuals participating in University of Idaho Extension programs. All University of Idaho 4-H Youth Development program participants are expected to:

- Work with youth, families, volunteers, and Extension personnel in a cooperative, courteous, respectful manner demonstrating good sportsmanship and behaviors appropriate for a positive role model.
- Accept supervision from Extension personnel and cooperate with others; parents and youth will also accept supervision from certified organizational and project volunteers.
- Maintain open, honest communication with members, volunteers, parents, and Extension personnel.
- Uphold every individual's right to dignity, appropriate self-expression, and individual development.
- Refrain from verbal, physical, or emotional abuse of others (via bullying, texting, social media, etc.) and report such abuse if observed. Any actions, such as conviction for child abuse or neglect, violent crimes, unethical behavior, substance abuse, verbal abuse, physical abuse, mismanagement of 4-H funds, or other serious offenses, will not be tolerated.
- Respect, adhere to, and enforce the rules, policies, and guidelines established at the county and state levels for the 4-H Youth Development Program and all applicable University of Idaho policies.
- Promote the spirit of inclusion and welcome participation of other individuals from all backgrounds. Comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws.
- The consumption of alcoholic beverages, the use of tobacco products, or an illegal controlled substance at 4-H youth events is prohibited.

- Inform Extension personnel of any incidents that may violate 4-H policies.
- Treat animals humanely and encourage all participants to provide appropriate and ethical animal care.
- Operate machinery, vehicles, and other equipment safely and responsibly when working with youth and adults participating in 4-H Youth Development programs.
- Ensure that 4-H participants are not required to purchase materials, equipment, animals, or services from any specific places of business.
- Comply with all applicable laws of the city, county, and state of residence and/or location of 4-H activity.
- Handle all concerns regarding county/area 4-H program management internally within the University of Idaho Extension system.

Violating the Code of Conduct shall be grounds of action up to and including immediate removal from the 4-H activity/programming and termination. Decisions regarding immediate removal, suspension, or termination will be made by the county 4-H Professional with subsequent notification of and consultation with the District Director and State 4-H Youth Development Director. Volunteers who appeal a decision may do so through the Appeal Process.

FFA Code of Ethics

FFA members conduct themselves at all times to be a credit to their organization, chapter, school, community and family. FFA members pledge to:

- Develop my potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success.
- Make a positive difference in the lives of others.
- Dress neatly and appropriately for the occasion.
- Respect the rights of others and their property.
- Be courteous, honest and fair with others.
- Communicate in an appropriate, purposeful and positive manner.
- Demonstrate good sportsmanship by being modest in winning and generous in defeat.
- Make myself aware of FFA programs and activities and be an active participant.
- Conduct and value a supervised agricultural experience program.
- Strive to establish and enhance my skills through agricultural education in order to enter a successful career.
- Appreciate and promote diversity in our organization.

Adapted by the Delegates at the 1952 National FFA Convention. Revised by the Delegates at the 1995 National FFA Convention.

Any person attempting to influence the judge's decision in any manner will be subject to disciplinary action by Fair Management and Extension Staff.

Judges' decisions are final.

Dress code:

4-H members and leaders are expected to dress appropriately while representing 4-H and FFA at The Western Idaho Fair. Dress guidelines include no exposure of underwear and midriff area, no spaghetti strap or see-through shirts and appropriate neckline. Closed-toe and closed-heeled shoes are required to be worn around animals. See showmanship division for description of appropriate show apparel.

Farnum Ring

Formerly known as Ring 1 & 2, Farnum Ring is named after Frank Farnum, long time Livestock Director. After retiring from that position, he continued to work in the livestock area and as a carpenter at the Western Idaho Fair, till his death in March of 2018, 2 weeks before his 90th birthday.
